Policy Manual, Section H (2) (i):

i) All reusable unique identifiers (aka “pinnies”) used in ‘A’ Tryouts, ‘C’ Evaluations or ‘N’ Assessments must be returned by the deadline, at the location, date, and time specified by the Board of Directors for each category and division.

i. Process is as follows:

- The parent will initial that they received the pinnie in a check-in column on the first player check-in event.
- Division Managers will schedule a Pinnie Return Day (PRD) for their divisions AFTER all evaluative sessions are completed for ALL groups in their divisions and communicate this date via Teamsnap app as an event in the Division Schedule.
    - Pinnies must be clean and dry when returned. Pinnies that are returned dirty, damp, sweaty, or that have foul odors will be charged a cleaning fee of $10 each.
    - Pinnies damaged to the point they are unusable will be charged for replacement at $25 each.
- Pinnie returns will be recorded using the same document used at the beginning of the evaluative sessions. There will be a check-out column that the person returning the pinnie must initial.
- Parents or players are NOT to give Board Members, including the Equipment Manager, their pinnies to be returned on their behalf.
- If a family is unable to return their pinnie(s) on the specified PRD, they must email their DM ahead of time to advise who will be returning it, with that proxy cc’d, and that person will need to initial the check-out column.

ii. Pinnies that are returned at another time or place than the specified PRD for their division risk not having their pinnies recorded as returned, and if they are not recorded as returned on the official check-in sheet used when the player first received their pinnie, they are liable for the cost of the pinnie. Pinnies not recorded as returned will be billed to the player at $25 each.

- Players are NOT to return pinnies after the last session into bins or garbage bags, nor are they to leave pinnies in dressing rooms.
- Players released to the ‘C’ divisions after ‘A’ tryouts are NOT to return their pinnies at the ‘C’ evaluations check-in.

- If a player was issued pinnies for ‘A’ tryouts and ‘C’ evaluations, they must return each at the appropriate PRD.

iii. Players who do not have the check-out column initialed after the PRD for that division has occurred will be billed at $25 each.

iv. Players who do not pay the invoice OR who do not produce the pinnie will have a $25 per pinnie charge added to their HCR profile and will not be permitted to register the following season until either the invoice is paid or the pinnie is produced.

v. This policy and process will be communicated to all players via Teamsnap before the first evaluative session each season.
