Optional Team Fundraising Options

While the Association may provide a list of suggested fundraisers for team convenience, inclusion on this list does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee of quality by Coquitlam Minor Hockey Association ('CMHA'). CMHA does not independently test or verify the effectiveness of these products or fundraisers, and encourages team officials to conduct their own due diligence to determine suitability for their specific fundraising needs.

★ The Vancouver and Abbotsford Canucks

This season, there are opportunities for PCAHA member teams to attend Canucks Morning Skates, Photoshoots with Fin the mascot, Chalk Talks with Canucks Alumni, as well as participate in intermission scrimmages during Canucks games.

These experiences come with minimum ticket purchases. Tickets can be purchased by the team (IE. 17 Players + 34 Parents = 51 Tickets) at a set rate to provide the players with a tremendous experience, but can also be part of a fundraising event for the team, with the team receiving $X per ticket sold based on their arrangement with the Canucks. Experiences like these make seasons memorable for young players.

For additional information on these types of experiences for your team, please contact:

★ Breakout Coffee

I'm Aaron, and like a lot of you, my family has kids in minor hockey. We know how hard it is to fundraise – the endless chocolate bars, wrapping paper, or complicated logistics that barely break even. That's why we created something different: an easy, high-profit fundraiser that actually feels good to run.

Breakout Coffee is a Vancouver-roasted brand inspired by early rink mornings, locker room vibes, and the hockey community that shapes our kids. We craft bold specialty coffee right here in Vancouver – the kind that fuels long tournament weekends and post-practice chats.

Here’s how it works:
- Parents, families, friends, relatives, etc buy our premium bags at $20
- You keep $4 profit per bag.
- We donate $1 per bag to HHTH – built into our model from day one, no matter what.
- We handle everything else: ordering, packing, delivery, and even custom team labels (optional).
